We are recruiting for
Pro Bono Law Students!!!!!!!!

What is Teen Court?
- Teen Court is a sentencing hearing for first time felony or misdemeanor juvenile offenders
- Teen students serve as attorneys, bailiffs, clerks, and jurors
- The defendant is sentenced according to the judgment of the Teen Court jury
- The only adult participant during the hearing is the judge
- Teen Court is open year round

What are my Responsibilities?
- Help the prosecution and defense with case and argument preparation
- Assist with educating teen officers about the court of law
- Ask questions that the attorneys may have missed during the defendant’s pre-trial interview, as well as provide input that may be helpful to their cases.
- Serve as Jury Observers during deliberation
- Critique the attorneys on arguments, objections, questioning, and overall professionalism
- No experience is necessary!
